

The Norfolk Library presents
My Night at the Planetarium:
performed by puppeteer
Tanya Nixon-Silberg

Saturday, March 23
3:00 - 3:45 p.m.
The Great Hall

Best-selling children's book author Innosanto Nagara's true story of art and social protest comes to life as a dynamic pop-up puppet show. The show transports audiences to Jakarta in the 1970s, where 7-year-old Inno learns firsthand how a play has the power to spark a resistance movement.

Please scan to register:

